

UNIVERSIDAD DE
COSTA RICA

Letter of acceptance of copyright (CADA)

Dear authors:

Receive a warm greeting from the editorial team of Revista Estudios. Shown below are the guidelines for postulation of articles to Revista Estudios.

- ✓ The document must be signed by all the participating authors. It should then be scanned and sent in PDF format to: revistaestudios.eeg@ucr.ac.cr
- ✓ If the article is sent through Portal de Revistas de la Universidad de Costa Rica, this document should be attached. (Step 4 of sending)
- ✓ This form should be addressed to the direct of the magazine Mag. Carolina Mora Chinchilla

Important

- Sending the Letter of acceptance of copyright is necessary for postulation of the articles that are received by the magazine. Without this document the article wont go through to the editing process.
- Sending the letter of acceptance of copyright does not guarantee the publication of the article.
- In case the article is reject the author is informed and its copyright returned so that he can do what he considers.
- Revisa estudios is a non profit publication, nothing is charged for the publication of the articles nor are these sold. The author or the authors preserve moral rights over the publication and yield their patrimonial rights when they sign the letter of acceptance of copyright. Once published the articles can be diffused freely due to the politic of open access this publication follows as long as the origin and authorship are mentioned.

Date: _____

Country:

_____

Editorial Council
Revista Estudios
Escuela de Estudios Generales
Universidad de Costa Rica

Dear Council:

The people signing below in condition of authors of the work titled:

postulated for evaluation to Revista Estudios, declare under oath that:

1. Accept that the postulation and possible publication of the article in Revista Estudios will be governed by the editorial policies of the prior, the institutional normative of the University of Costa Rica and the legislation of the Republic of Costa Rica. Additionally, in any case of difference in criteria or future dispute, this will be resolved by the mechanisms of Alternative Resolution of Conflicts and the Costa Rican Jurisdiction.
2. The work is original and unpublished, it constitutes an intellectual producción owned by the people indicated as authors and has not been published in print or digital format.
3. The work has not been simultaneously postulated for publication to any other printed magazine, electronic or in any other written media or editorial organism. Documents that have been previously published in blogs, repositories of websites will not be accepted.
4. The work does not present any type of interest conflicts that can influence the results of the work and if it does it should be clearly stated in the work.
5. If the article has various authors and its impossible to credit any of them for a particular participation in the article the work will be considered colectiva and the authors will have to designate someone in charge of answering observations and queries from Revista Estudios and in case the article is published, to receive the correspondence of the readers.

6. Recognise that Revista Estudios does not necessarily share the affirmations that are exposed in the published document.
7. Declare that all the cited data within the work and its respective bibliographic references have in the document their correspondent credits and sources. Always using APA citation.
8. In the case the article contains tables, figures, illustrations, maps, photographs or similar; or any other copyright from a third party without permission as author or co author of the article then the authors will need to have the respective permission for the publication of these contents in Revista Estudios. Exceptions to the rule are the contents that are in public domain or have been published with a license compatible with the politics of publication and divulgation of the magazine which are available in our website <http://revistas.ucr.ac.cr/index.php/estudios/about/submissions#authorGuidelines>
9. The authors of this article manifest they authorize Revista Estudios so that it can perform any of the following actions:
  - a. The graphic edition and style of the work should be up to the standard of the magazine displayed website <http://revistas.ucr.ac.cr/index.php/estudios/about/submissions#authorGuidelines>
  - b. The publication and reproduction of all the work or any part of it in electronic print including internet or any other technology know or to be discovered.
  - c. The adaptation of the work to reading, audible or any other type of representation or technical mechanism available that helps people with visual impediments to access the contents.
  - d. The distribution of the work to the public, so that the public has access to it at the time and place they choose through either physical mechanisms or electronic.
  - e. Any other form of utilisation, process or sistema know or to be known that relates to the activities and editorial ends related to Revista Estudios.
  - f. All the activities mentioned will be realized under the principles of Open Access and through the use of the license of Creative Commons 3.0 or any other equivalent mechanism.
10. In case the work is accepted for publication, you accept the publication of the work under the license Creative commons

<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/> . In case it is rejected the authors are free to submit their article to any other magazine or publication means and the established in this document is annulled.

Sincerely, (See point 5)

---

Name and last name:

---

Identification number: _____
(Passport or national ID)

Author of the article . In the case of several authors this should be completed individually.
Name and last names:
Signature:
institutional affiliation:
City, Country:
Date:
E-mail:	